

Any Work for the Cooper?

NO Cooper that patrols the street
 Compares to William Farrell,
 A washing tub for mending neat,
 Or hooping well a barrel.

When'er a vessel gets a bruize
 By slipping off the stooper,
 Old Farrell I would have you chuse,
 As soon as any Cooper.

For as he liquor always lov'd,
 And ever would be tasting,
 By this good maxim he is mov'd,
 "A sin depends on wasting."
